

BANKRUPTCY ^{UP}DATE

October 11, 2016

If someone else would like to receive these ^{UP}dates, please send an e-mail to Mary_Frederickson@sdb.uscourts.gov.

Submission of Proposed Orders

Pursuant to Bankr. D.S.D. R. 9072-1(a)(1), all proposed orders should be submitted to the Court electronically, in Word or WordPerfect format, to proposed_orders@sdb.uscourts.gov. As required by Bankr. D.S.D. R. 9072-1(a)(2), a proposed order granting a motion for relief from stay, a motion to compel abandonment, or an application for compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses of $1,000.00 or less should be submitted to the Court when the motion or application is filed. A proposed order confirming a plan or granting any other motion, application, objection to claimed exemptions, or objection to a proof of claim that is not contested, other than those listed on Appendix 9I of our local bankruptcy rules, should be submitted to the Court as soon as the deadline for objections or other responses has passed. Orders marked with an asterisk on Appendix 9I are often entered only as docket text orders and do not need to be submitted to the Court via e-mail.
