Changes for United States Trustee Program

Jim Snyder, the Acting United States Trustee for Region 12, has asked us to pass along the following message:

Effective May 31, 2019, the United States Trustee Program has closed its official office in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Mail for the Sioux Falls office should be routed to:

United States Trustee's Office
Room B-14, U.S. Courthouse
400 S. Phillips Avenue
Sioux Falls, SD 57104

The telephone number for the office will remain the same.

First meetings of creditors in Sioux Falls are now being held in Room 108 of the Federal Courthouse at 400 S. Phillips Avenue. Because the Federal Courthouse is a secured facility, attorneys should remind their clients they must have a photo ID to enter the building and that weapons, including pocket knives and pepper spray, are not permitted in the building.

Marcy Jones remains with the United States Trustee Program and will continue to be located in Sioux Falls. The Program will retain a presence in Sioux Falls at the address in the Federal Courthouse. As has been the case for the past seven years, legal matters for South Dakota will be handled out of the Des Moines field office and legal matters for North Dakota will be handled out of the Minneapolis field office.
