Update of the Court's Website

As part of updating our website, we are trying to identify the ten most frequently used local forms and samples. Once we have the list, we hope to provide quick access to them. Please check or circle your top ten (or fewer) forms and samples from the attached fillable form and add any favorites we may have missed at the bottom of the list. Please e-mail your top selections to Sandy Brooks, Judge Nail's judicial assistant, at Sandy_Brooks@sdb.uscourts.gov on or before August 3, 2020.

Undeliverable or Returned Mail

Pursuant to Bankr. D.S.D. R. 2002-4(c), if a valid address for a creditor cannot be determined, the recipient of returned mail or a notice of returned or undeliverable mail must prepare and file a statement conforming to Appendix 2K (Debtor's Statement Regarding Certain Undeliverable or Returned Mail) that lists the name of the person or the entity not served, references each address at which service was attempted but not made, identifies each document for which good service has not been made, and summarizes the resources used to attempt to obtain a good address. When electronically filing a Debtor's Statement Regarding Certain Undeliverable or Returned Mail, please use the CM/ECF event "Statement re: Undeliverable or Returned Mail" found under Bankruptcy - Other.

Filing this statement does not excuse or substitute for good service. It just provides a clearer record of the service attempts made.
