Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021

On December 27, 2020, in response to the economic distress caused by the COVID-19 pandemic and to supplement the CARES Act, the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021 ("CAA") was signed into law. In addition to providing funding for pandemic relief, the CAA temporarily modifies certain sections of the Bankruptcy Code as described in the following article from the National Law Review and summary prepared by the Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri.
